The President Says.....

It is hard to believe that this calendar year is coming to an end and that my term as President is half over!!! I must say that I am proud of the accomplishments the club has made and I am looking forward to us finishing the year on a strong note.

As we prepare for the holidays, I hope that we do not get too caught up in the commercial aspect of the season and that we can focus on the real meaning of Christmas. This could be the perfect time to extend ourselves to someone who has had a particularly difficult year or who may not be as fortunate as we are. It could be as simple as sending a card or a tin of cookies to let them know they are thought of by others.

I would like to wish each of you a very merry Christmas and a happy and healthy New Year.

Thanks for all of your help,

President Fran

Peace Poster Winners for Vision of Peace, 2010 - 2011

Please notice the Peace Posters at the North Carroll Branch of the Carroll County Public Library. The theme for 2010-2011 was Vision of Peace.

Mrs. Brigitte (Holsten) Bodner, the art teacher of North Carroll Middle School, has a way of motivating the students to do an artistic job to capture the theme and as always, all the posters depict the theme. Thank you, Mrs. Bodner, for working with the contest.

Steven Pearson, Instructor of art at McDaniel College let his Art Club and an art class judge the posters that were submitted to the contest. Apparently, the college students have good skills of judgment. The posters they select as winning posters always do well on the district level. Thanks Mr. Pearson for the part you play in the contest.

First Prize: Steven Priester, 8-7
Second Prize: Alissa Jones, 6-3
Third Prize: Sydney Helphenstine, 8-6
Honorable Mention: Emily Meyer, 7-2

Steven Priester, son of Ted and Karen Priester, earned Fourth Prize at the Maryland 22-W District level. Congratulations Steven! Please see the December district newsletter for a picture of his poster.

Six Gifts That Don't Cost a Cent To Give

The Gift of Listening . . .

But you must REALLY listen.

No interrupting, no daydreaming, no planning your response. Just listening.

The Gift of Affection . . .

Be generous with appropriate hugs, kisses, pats on the back and handholds. Let these small actions demonstrate the love you have for family and friends.

The Gift of Laughter . . .

Funny pictures. Share articles, funny stories and funny greetings. You gift will say, "I love to laugh with you."

The Gift of a Written Note . . .

It can be a simple "Thanks for the help" note or a full sonnet.

A brief, handwritten note may be remembered for a lifetime, and may even change a life.

The Gift of a Compliment . . .

A simple and sincere, "You look great in red," "You did a super job" or "That was a wonderful meal" can make someone's day.

The Gift of a Favor . . .

Every day, go out of your way to do something kind.

Mission of LCIF

Service has been the hallmark of Lions Clubs International since it was founded in 1917. It is the world's largest service club organization with 1.3 million members in 205 countries and regions. Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF) was begun in 1968 to take that service to new levels by tackling global problems as well as assisting Lions with large-scale local humanitarian projects. Through LCIF, Lions meet the needs of their local and global communities. LCIF has evolved to become an internationally recognized humanitarian organization and the largest blindness prevention organization. LCIF is able to leverage its funds by partnering with other non-governmental organizations and corporations that share a common mission. The Foundation grants, on average, $30 million annually. LCIF is particularly proud of its SightFirst program, launched in 1990 to reduce and eliminate the causes of preventable blindness worldwide. Through the program, it has helped more than 30 million people.

It's Up To You

One song can spark a moment,
One flower can wake the dream,
One tree can start a forest,
One bird can herald spring,
One smile begins a friendship,
One handclasp lifts a soul.
One star can guide a ship at sea,
One word can frame the foal.
One vote can change a nation,
One sunbeam lights a room.
One candle wipes out darkness,
One laugh will conquer gloom.
One step must start each journey,
One word must start each prayer.
One hope will raise our spirits,
One touch can show you care.
One voice can speak with wisdom,
One heart can know what's true.
One life can make the difference,
You see, it's up to you!

Dare to Dream Again by Chris Widener

Do you remember when you were a child and no dream seemed too big? Some of us thought we would walk on the moon; some dreamed of riding with Roy Rogers; others imagined stepping to the plate in a big-league game. Every one of us, when we were young, had a common trait: we were dreamers. The world hadn't gotten to us yet to show us that we couldn't possibly achieve what our hearts longed for. And we were yet still years from realizing that in some cases we weren't built for achieving our dream. (I realized about my junior year of high school that I was too short and too slow to play professional basketball. The dreamer is always the last to know!)

Eventually we started to let our dreams die. People began to tell us that we couldn't do the things we wanted. It was impossible. Responsible people don't pursue their dreams. Settle down, get a job, be dependable. Take care of business, live the mundane, be content.

Avoid regret. The facts are in, and someday we will all lie on our deathbed looking back through the history of our lives. We will undoubtedly think about what we wished we had done or accomplished. I for one don't want to regret what could have been, what should have been. So I am deciding today to pursue my dreams.

The world needs people like you to dream. Dream of something great and then pursue it with all of your heart. Maybe you belong to a business, school or organization that started out with good intentions but has settled into the same ol' same ol'. Shake them up and remind them of how they could really help people if only they would dream!

Personal and family fulfillment. One of the things that happens when we stop pursuing our dreams is that a little piece of us dies and we become disheartened, if only in that area of our lives. Stepping up and pursuing your dream rekindles that passion and zeal that everyone has the capacity for and lets us experience fulfillment. Having a purpose puts the zip in our step and the zing in our emotions!

Making the world a better place. All of the great accomplishments that have ever happened began with a person who had a dream. Somebody rebuffed the naysayers and said to himself or herself, "This can be done, and I am the one who will do it." And in many instances they changed the world for the better. It isn't just the Martin Luther Kings and the JFKs either. Think of all the people we have never heard of who have started things large and small that help people worldwide every day.

Leaving a legacy. How will your children remember you? As one who sought all that life had to offer, using your gifts and talents to their fullest extent, leading the family with a zest for life, or as an overweight couch potato who could have been? Our children need to see that we dream; that we search for something better. They in turn will do the same!

Reconnect with your dream. Set aside some time to let yourself dream. What have you placed on the backburner in order to live the status quo? Settle on one or two dreams that you can and will pursue. Don't come up with too many. That will only deter you further.

Decide that you will do it. This may seem elementary but many people never decide and commit fully to their dream. They simply keep "thinking" about it. Tell others that you are going to do it. This puts you on the record as to what you are dreaming about. It makes you accountable. It will help you do it if for no other reason than to avoid embarrassment!

Develop a step-by-step plan. This is absolutely essential. You must sit down and write out a few things:

- A timeline. How long will it take to the end?
- Action steps. Point-by-point what you will do and when you will do them.
- Resources you will need to draw from. What will it take? Who will need to be involved for help or advice?
- An evaluation tool. You need to evaluate from time to time whether you are progressing or not.
- A celebration. Yep, when you are done you should already have planned what you will do to celebrate. Make it big!
- There is no better time than now. So, set aside some time today to get started on your dream. . .
