Fellow Lions,

This holiday season as always, has been hectic I am sure, for every member. Gift lists to fill, parties to plan, or attend, cookies to make, tree shopping or cutting, decorating the tree and the home, searching on-line for the right gift for the special person, mall, shopping till exhausted., .. Now the depress from the season, Eating the left over cookies, decorations to remove and store for next year. Or, you could be as yours truly and never take the tree or the decorations down and keep it all for next season. Of course, be sure that your tree is artificial..

I hope you all got the gifts you needed or wanted and most of all, as I and Pat, spent loads of time with family enjoying.

I am praying that our nation will be at peace and most important, all of us will remain healthy, or have the support to recover quickly.

Lion Vince
