President's Message

The true meaning of Lionism was in full swing yesterday, Sunday August 7th, 2011 at the pool. The Lions Club hosted the annual Carroll County Special Olympic Pool Party. The athletes and their families enjoyed an evening of swimming, good food and music.

Fortunately, Mother Nature cooperated with the weather and the attendees were able to swim in the pool and put on a fabulous diving exhibition. The athletes were thrilled with the audience excitement during the diving show.

As we move forward this year, let us try to stay focused on the great things that this CLUB does for the community in which we live.

Lion Joe

(Recognition to be held at 6:00 PM)

How Many Laps can you Swim in an Hour?

Who can participate? Individual swimmers of any age and ability can compete. If you think swimming laps is too strenuous, form a team, the more the merrier. Share the laps. Be creative. Let's just get out there and have fun and raise funds for the Carroll County Special Olympics!

Teams: If you are swimming as a team: Make sure you have a creative team name and please list all team participants on the pledge sheet so that proper recognition is given!

Minimum donations collected: Every swimmer or team MUST collect at least $20 dollars. Make all checks payable to the Lineboro-Manchester Lions Club. Collect ALL funds prior to the swim. Deliver funds to the pool the afternoon of the swim. There will be a pledge collection table. You can also deliver them early at the pool entrance.

PLEASE RSVP TO JOE BACH 410-239-3078 or lmlionspool@yahoo.com
