President's Message

To all the members of the Lineboro-Manchester Lions Club, your new President, Vince DePalmer, greets you. Having only been a member for two full years, I am sure that many of you have never met me, as I have never met many of you also. This year, obviously, will be a very enlightening experience for us and all other members. We are faced with a common challenge that all clubs experience, keeping the treasury adequate with funds so we can complete the services and projects our community needs.

I have completed the required list of committees for 2015-16, and most are the same, with new members, or a possible committee name change. There are, however, several new committees that will be critical to the success of our mission.

Committees such as Communication, Publicity and History; Land Purchase/Building; Leo Club; School Events; Bocce Tournament and Eye Screening are unique and needed to achieve our goals for the year.

Of course, setting aside funds to begin the process of planning a Lions Club facility as a goal, is unique and ambitious, but other goals are just as important. As I have stated before, I am 100% committed to our community swimming pool and I encourage every member to dedicate themselves to support whatever the Bach family needs to make the pool function safely and with sustainability.

We should also strive to sell our club and make it more visible to the community. Photos with explanations, of every event or promotion should be published and results saved.

Another important goal is to work closely with all other groups in Manchester to work together promoting our goals to improve and support the needs of our community. I will personally attend, when possible, the Town of Manchester meetings, M.A.M.A. meetings and Nature Center Meetings. Assisting at the Manchester Fireman's Carnival is also possible.

Finally, I am excited about our plans to have dinners, not the typical roasts, to raise funds. A dinner, no matter if spaghetti, meat loaf, or shrimp, means family, and it gives us the opportunity to serve whole families personally and to make the dinner a positive event for them.

There will not be a general meeting on 1 July, however, I hope to see every new board member, and Andy Sr. that night at the Senior Center. 1830

As Always
