President's Message

Fellow Lineboro Manchester Lions

There should be no argument that our club, over the past six months, has encountered many issues; some positive, some negative, some new and some old-renewed as a result, I have definitely gained huge respect for the message of Lions.

The projects promoted by Lions International engage me and I personally support them for their purpose and the effect they have on problems, locally and even world-wide. Having this respect helps me view our current quest to raise funds with renewed enthusiasm. Perhaps if all members could acquaint, or reacquaint themselves anew with what Lions are really about, a new sense of energy to volunteer for committees and most important, recruit new members, may be a welcome positive outcome. The point is we need active participation in committees, and when there is a need to lead; volunteer.

Also, it would be to our advantage to promote a recruitment campaign.

Perhaps using financial rewards. Think about it.

Go Lineboro/Manchester Lions!
President Vince
